Guidance for Competitive Examination

In current times, competitive examinations are considered an egalitarian way to select worthy applicants without risking influence peddling bias or other concerns. Being norm achievement tests, one has to perform better than others and for which studying at core level is of paramount importance. So in order to groom students in accordance with the spirit of these examination, the webinar was conducted on Google Meet platform being pandemic times on 2nd February 2021 at 10.30am. Approximately 225 students attended the session. Prof. Prajakta Raut, Coordinator, Competitive Examination Cell introduced the two Resource Persons.

Resource Person Mr. Sumesh Chahal, the founder and Director of Chahal Academy Private Ltd., Institution for Civil Services Examination (IAS/IPS/UPSC) Preparation made the students aware of the fact that there is no short cut to success and a short Cut will only cut us short. Success comes a marathon way. So the core level studies are must to come in flying colours in these examinations.

Another Resource Person Mr. Sumit Kumar, National Motivational Speaker, Innovative Education, threw a flood of light on resourcefulness, smartness required from the point of view of facing interviews since one has to give the best version of himself/ herself. Here inspiration itself is not the sole guide; perspiration too is required, Expressing need for joining such grooming session.

In Question- Answer session, there had been outbursing response from students right from inquiry regarding fees to opening up of a centre in the College.

Prof. Shahbaz Rizvi expressed Vote of Thanks to all.
